

Port Lincoln High School

Port Lincoln High School is located in Port Lincoln on the shores of Boston Bay, Eyre Peninsula, 660km from the city of Adelaide. Port Lincoln is the seafood and aquaculture capital of Australia, home to the country's largest commercial fishing fleet and renowned for its tuna, prawn, whiting, crayfish and oysters. The region offers a myriad of activities from fishing and sailing, to diving with great white sharks, touring aquaculture industries and exploring the area's sheltered beaches and booming surf. The school offers a broad curriculum ranging from traditional academic subjects to vocational education pathways including aquaculture and commercial cookery. There are also numerous opportunities for students to develop leadership and sporting skills and involve themselves in community projects.
